

Provence Rosé Makes Debut W.R. Tish - August 1, 2017

New Provence Chateau de Chausse, recently purchased by Charles S. Cohen, an avid Francophile and wine lover on top of being a real-estate developer and Oscar-winning film distributor, made its U.S. debut in NYC on June 26th at Upper Story. This young property (first vintage 1993) showed that Provence is rosé and much more, in a guided tasting of two Rolle (Vermentino) based whites and five Syrah and Cabernet-based reds, which will be imported and distributed by Solstars.

